O God, Our Help in Ages Past – 52

Congregational Scripture Reading – Pastor Ramiro Castillo

For though I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it—for I see that that letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while—I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, so that you might not suffer loss in anything through us. For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death. For behold what earnestness this very thing, this godly sorrow, has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what avenging of wrong! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter. (2 Corinthians 7:8-11 NASB)

Invocation – Mr. Charles Terry

Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy – 334

Scripture Reading – Mr. John McMullen

Psalms 37:12-26

All Glory Be to Christ

* Should nothing of our efforts stand, no legacy survive, Unless the Lord does raise the house, in vain its builders strive. To you who boast tomorrow's gain, tell me, what is your life? A mist that vanishes at dawn, all glory be to Christ!

Chorus: All glory be to Christ our King! All glory be to Christ! His rule and reign we'll ever sing, all glory be to Christ!

 His will be done, His kingdom come, on earth as is above. Who is Himself our daily bread, praise Him the Lord of love. Let living waters satisfy the thirsty without price. We'll take a cup of kindness yet, all glory be to Christ!*

 When on the day the great I Am, the faithful and the true, the Lamb who was for sinner's slain, is making all things new. Behold our God shall live with us and be our steadfast light, and we shall e'er His people be, all glory be to Christ!*
