Our Great Savior – 89

Congregational Scripture Reading – Pastor Ramiro Castillo

What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it. He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God. I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past. And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. (Ecclesiastes 3:9-17 - KJV)

His Mercy is More – song of the month

* What love could remember no wrongs we have done! Omniscient, all-knowing, he counts not their sum. Thrown into a sea without bottom or shore; Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.

* What patience would wait as we constantly roam! What Father, so tender, is calling us home? He welcomes the weakest, the vilest, the poor; Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.

* What riches of kindness He lavished on us! His blood was the payment, His life was the cost. We stood 'neath a debt we could never afford; Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.

Chorus

Praise the Lord! His mercy is more; Stronger than darkness, new every morn. Our sins they are many, His mercy is more.
