

Southern Oaks Baptist Church

September 19, 2021 – Joshua Cook, Music Leader

Prelude – Sarah Cook

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty – 2

Scripture Reading – Nathan Cook

“I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.” (Romans 12:1-2 ESV)

Opening Prayer – Ryan Bybee

Come, Behold the Wondrous Mystery – 184 – Song of the month

God Leads Us Along – 57

Scripture Reading – Mark Coppock

Psalm 91:1-16

How Deep the Father’s Love for Us – 80

Sermon – Nathan Cook

“Seek and Serve God” – 1 Samuel 30

Instrumental Meditation – Abide with Me – 59

My Father’s Care

* O the sovereign power that guides me every moment of my days
O the weakness of my spirit that forgets and shrinks away
So when faced with tribulation, and my feeble understanding fails
May I honor Him who holds me Trusting in my Father’s care.

* When the storms of life surround me, and the winds of worry blow I remember not a sparrow falls, but God my Father knows Not a war can rise against me that’s beyond His strength to overcome So I’ll let my heart take courage Trusting in my Father’s care.

* When my health and comforts fail me and I fear what lies ahead I remember His good purpose is to heal through what I dread
And from pride to fully purge me till all strength is gone but what He gives So I’ll joy in every trial Trusting in my Father’s care.

* When my failings overcome me and my sins are all I see I remember Christ who suffered, setting guilty sinners free So when condemnation rises, I will gladly let my burden go He is faithful in forgiveness I will trust my Father’s care.

* Though the fig tree fails to blossom, and the vine should bear no fruit
Tho’ the produce of the olive and the harvest yield no food
Tho’ the flocks be lost and scattered, and no herds remain within the stalls Still, my joy shall fully flourish Trusting in my Father’s care.

Closing Prayer – Ramiro Castillo
